

Cambridge Footlights International Tour Show 2014:

Real Feelings

“The most renowned sketch troupe of them all”
The Independent

Following years of critically-acclaimed sell-out runs, catch the Cambridge Footlights as they present their boldest tour show yet: Real Feelings. Starting with a two-week run of previews in Cambridge, the tour will travel to London, perform for a month at the Edinburgh Fringe, before three weeks of touring the United States, with shows in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, San Francisco and other major cities.

The Footlights are Britain’s most celebrated student comedy club, boasting past members such as Stephen Fry, Emma Thompson, Tim Key, Richard Ayoade and countless more. Returning to Edinburgh’s Pleasance AceDome, this year’s tour also coincides with the reunion with some of the Footlights’ most famous alumni: John Cleese, Eric Idle and the other members of Monty Python. Catch this year’s tour show to see why the Footlights remains “a seedbed for mighty comedic talents” (Time Out).

Showcasing the work of the club’s most talented writers and performers, Real Feelings promises an outstanding array of sketches, surrealism and sharp new comedy. Join the Footlights for their 52nd year at the Fringe and a show that is always a “must-have ticket” (Times of London).

Cast & Crew

Writer-performers: Ryan Ammar, James Bloor, Thomas Fraser, Alex MacKeith and Ben Pope

Writer-director: Jamie Fraser

Tour Managers: Helen Charman and Claire O'Brien

@footlightstour

